

Multi-professional working is a modern core approach to delivering excellence in ophthalmic care. This course provides advice and systemic approaches in the interpretation and use of modern investigations to ensure the best outcomes for patients.